Pre-Con Proposals

On behalf of the 2020 Conference Committee, we are excited to announce the open call for Pre-Con Program Proposals! These sessions will be held on Wednesday, February 5, 2020 for either a full day, or a half day. The program content is aimed at creating a deeper understanding regarding a specific topic, such as training hearing boards, restorative justice, freedom of speech, etc. We invite all of our colleagues to submit proposals in order for the programming committee to provide all attendees with diverse and quality programming leading to a successful experience for all attendees. If you have any questions about the submission process, please contact Weston Prisbrey, Programming Chair, at wprisbrey@gmail.com.

Please be prepared to answer the following questions upon submission of a proposal:

- Program Title
- Abstract (60 word maximum)
- Program Description (including an outline and overview of all information to be covered during the program)
- Three intended learning outcomes for the program
- How the program contributes to the profession and the development of student conduct practitioners
- Which of the ASCA learning priorities the program aligns with and how
