

We hope to see you in Crystal City!

Please join us to celebrate our Annual Conference in Crystal City, VA. The 2020 ASCA Conference theme, Today's Vision, Tomorrow's Reality, highlights:

- Our innovations in student development through the student conduct practice;
- Our expertise as a collective field that can continue to learn from our own best practices;
- The opportunity to shape the field in an every changing environment.

We're Now Accepting Concurrents!

The annual conference committee is happy to open the call for concurrent programs. The deadline to submit concurrent program proposals is September 30, 2019 at 11:59 pm EST. If you have any questions about the program proposal process, you may contact Weston Prsbrey, 2020 Conference Programming Chair, at wprsbrey@gmail.com.

Various topic areas serve as integral tools for you and your institutions, including law and policy updates, mental health, sexual misconduct and title ix, threat assessment, behavior intervention, academic integrity, assessment and student organizations. We hope that presenters will explore new topics relating to our field and encourage sessions highlighting the diverse institution types and individuals that impact the work we do.

The Conference Committee is soliciting the following session types for this year's conference:

- Classroom Session –Traditional 60-minute sessions that are focused on the learning priorities of the organization.
- Roundtable Session – 60-minute pre-planned discussions that are designed to facilitate conversation among peers on a topic relevant to the field (Please note: there is generally no A/V available for roundtable sessions.)

Program proposals for the aforementioned session types should demonstrate clear evidence of planning, organization, content expertise or experience, clearly stated learning outcomes and objectives, and be relevant to the field of student conduct.

For assistance with completing a proposal, check out our submission guide on our website!
